

Widow 153

Chapter 153

“Jarrod.” Crystal couldn’t help but say, “Sister Alissa was deceived at that time. She was still a little girl. Caleb had been in society for a long time. Sister Alissa was no match for him. I knew that Sister Alissa was too willful, but Sister Alissa also knew that she was wrong. Now she stopped the harm in time... Don’t be angry with her.”

Jarrod sneered and said, “Don’t be angry with her?! She is my only daughter. She has been spoiled since she was a child and we’ve always given her everything she wanted. As a result, she broke ties with her family for a man. She left for five years! Do you think she has a conscience?”

Crystal suddenly felt a little envious.

Even though Jarrod was so harsh, his eyes were still full of love for his daughter. She had only seen this kind of look occasionally in Dan’s eyes, but Dan was too cowardly. He would never dare to stand in front of everyone to protect his daughter.

kind of cowardice was engraved in Dan’s bones, and Crystal felt very sad when

“If you love each other, don’t hurt each other. Sister Alissa did not live

Jarrod was silent.

how disappointing she is,

There’s no overnight feud between father and daughter. You two should communicate with a little sun and

she have

and

love me

thinking about what to eat at noon when she suddenly

liar!”

saw Crystal, he ran away. Crystal chased after