

Widow 154

Chapter 154

Crystal was stunned. Was he reaping what he sowed?

She hesitated and said, "Did you meet a gangster?"

Walter said, "I don't know which big shot have I offended. Anyway, I'm no longer going to do it. I'm afraid that if I continue to do it, I won't be able to keep my life."

Crystal said, "Even if you are quitting, I'll still call the police to arrest you."

Walter was speechless.

Walter lit a cigarette speechlessly and said, "In the past, I always told the girl directly when I helped others to find a girl. She would only leave with me if she was willing to."

Crystal said, "Stop arguing. You lied to me that day."

Walter said helplessly, "At that time, Tim needed people very urgently, and I was also very anxious. I was afraid that you would run away, so I... I swear to God, in the past, I was always straightforward. There are people who always asked me to introduce my customers to them. My customers are all rich, and many people want to know them, but they are not qualified..."

Crystal asked suspiciously, "Really?"

how could I have been safe for so many years? If others were forced by me, I Crystal was speechless.

at my injury. It's terrible enough. Don't make things difficult for me anymore. If I don't go to see a doctor, my legs will go to see a doctor first, and then I'll call

Walter was speechless.

really saluted this little never crossed the line. He was not afraid of the police coming, so if you run away?" Walter pointed to the car next to him and said, "This is my car. If I don't come down, you can report my car number to the police and they fooled. She asked his before she would happen, I would never

and had to go to the said, "Go ahead.