

Widow 157

Chapter 157

When Crystal heard him say “not bad”, she immediately did not dare to ask any more questions. She was afraid that she would be exposed.

The banquet hall was a well-known underground restaurant in Fairby, but it would take half a year to get the slot there. However, since the banquet hall was part of the Evans family’s business, it had always reserved a seat for the Evans family.

Crystal followed Danny and was so nervous that her palms were sweating. “I’d better not eat. I ate a lot of food this morning. I’m not hungry yet.”

As soon as she finished speaking, her stomach let out a growl.

Crystal was speechless.

Why couldn’t she be determined?

A faint smile flashed across Danny’s eyes. “I said I won’t eat you up.”

Crystal thought to herself, “But you can kill people.”

The manager of the banquet hall came down personally to greet Danny, so he naturally knew Danny.

He looked at Crystal curiously and asked, “Mr. Evans, who is this lady?”

but for a moment, he did not

he and Crystal had met each other. He had only just found

Evans was pure, but in the misunderstood, Crystal was anxious soon as she said this, Crystal regretted it and covered her mouth

she revealing

lightly, “Don’t think too much. She’s said, “Yes, yes, yes. I misunderstood.

she comes over, record her spending more respectful. “May I know your name so said, “Just

mouth twitched. “Okay, Miss

Crystal. He stood beside her and said with a smile, “Speaking of which, Miss Evans has just Crystal’s entire body stiffened.

would have spilled on the banquet hall today. "Did she come women here."

the other is an old woman. I don't know them, and Miss Evans didn't seem to want understood