

Widow 16

Chapter 16

Lorna was speechless, her face grimaced. "How dare you talk to me like that!"

Crystal sounded calm, "Miss Carter, this is my husband's wake, please watch your mouth! Well, if Master White is unhappy, he may come to see you at night..."

She gave the girl a sinister look. "Don't you know how scary Master White was when he was alive?" Lorna habitually looked at Harold's portrait.

When Harold White was still alive, she had seen him a few times, but she only dared to look at him from a distance. She couldn't even see his face clearly. A man like Harold wasn't from the same world with her.

No one in City W didn't know about the man's legendary life.

He was ruthless, and furious. He could kill people without shedding a drop of blood... His horror was even worse than what words could describe.

but his prestige was still there. Those who wanted to divide the White family didn't course, Lorna was scared. "Don't use the dead to scare me. Even if Master White becomes a ghost, before leaving, "I don't think you will have good days here.

eat. No one cared about Crystal, or they had forgotten touched her growling belly. Hmph, the White family was so rich, but they didn't even feed

After confirming that no one was almost choked to death. She turned her

the girl's resumed eating.

I hide it? I might as well just finish eating it." Crystal took a few bites, stuffing her mouth with eating so fast? No one wants to compete with you. You should keep in your mind that you're still a young not a young lady. I'm just