

Widow 172

Chapter 172

The show ended perfectly, and the designer came out to thank the guests.

Vera still couldn't believe that the clothes had really been mended!

She took a deep breath and went to the dressing room. At this time, the atmosphere in the dressing room was completely different from before. It was as happy as the Spring Festival. Katie grabbed Crystal's hand and said excitedly. "You are amazing... How can you be so powerful? You really did it!"

Crystal was a little dizzy from her shaking. "... Thank you, but let me go first. I feel like throwing up."

Hearing this, Katie quickly let go of her. She was so excited that her face turned red. Originally, she thought that she would be doomed this time. However, Crystal managed to repair her clothes at the last moment. After being repaired, her clothes were even more beautiful and dazzling!

The passionate red broke through the dark black and white. It was a nice piece of work!

Vera gritted her teeth and screamed, "Only Master Bolton knows the Bolton Clan's embroidery technique. How can you fix this dress? It's absolutely impossible!"

said doubtfully, "Why are you so sure that only Master Bolton knows this technique? I've also learned this before, but it's not
