

Widow 181

Chapter 181

Harold laughed. "Okay."

Crystal was relieved to take a shower after he closed the door. But after a while, someone knocked on the door again. Crystal frowned and asked, "What do you want?"

Harold said with a smile, "You didn't bring any clothes."

Crystal replied with an "oh" and Harold added, "This time, I brought you the little shark costume you liked."

Crystal was speechless.

Harold knocked on the door. "Do you want it?"

Crystal slowly opened the door and stretched out an arm. "Give it to me."

Harold put her clothes on her hand. Then, she quickly retracted her hand, and slammed the door shut.

leaned against the car and lit

fearfully,

suddenly asked Kalen to turn back. Kalen did not dare to have any doubts and quickly drove back, broke out in a cold sweat and said, "Didn't we see a car coming down from the mountain when we came? It must be the car that took Miss Evans said, "What does it have Kalen was speechless.

did he come back? Why

to say these people had never seen before. After all, he was generally known in the entertainment circle to have a good temper, being gentle and considerate. He always had a smile on his face. Not to mention losing his temper,

"Do

gone too far by doing this and said, "You are my boss. How can I have any opinions about

years ago, my health at that time. There was nothing wrong with her during the pregnancy check-up. We knew that the baby was a girl. We were very forward to the birth of a

