

Widow 201

Chapter 201

Crystal heaved a sigh of relief.

She sent this message to Harold, but he didn't reply.

President White was discovered during the meeting when he was loafing on the job.

Larry narrowed his eyes and placed his hands on the stage. Behind him was a projection screen, on which was a temporarily frozen presentation slide. He said, "Master White, can you look at me during the meeting?"

Harold, who was openly loafing, was self-righteous and even arrogant. "What's there to look at?"

Larry said, "I just talked about the future of the company, the prospect of the company, and the company's hundred-year planning..."

Harold said, "I'll be dead a hundred years later."

Larry was speechless.

He clicked his tongue and said, "Dear shareholders, you can serve him. I won't serve him anymore. The money I made with great effort has been used by this b*stard to coax a little girl."

The shareholders were speechless.

Reynes was so domineering and so awesome. They wanted to be as domineering as him. They wanted to be so awesome, but they didn't

was not a

on the table and said, "I

to speak, he added, "Next time, if you behave like trembled with anger. "Harold,

you," Harold said. "It's

Larry was speechless.

were

that Mr. Reynes didn't vomit blood because of anger when the board meeting held.

his speech passionately. At least half an hour later, it was Harold's turn.

The crowd applauded enthusiastically.

Larry was speechless.

to swallow back

Harold like a ghost.

phone and

in a meeting,

this is the