

Widow 205

Chapter 205

Kayla raised her eyebrows and asked, "Rose, why did you bring her here?"

They almost wrote down the words "We don't welcome her" on their faces.

Dora didn't seem to notice Kayla's hostility. She smiled and said, "In the future, we'll meet often. I still want to introduce you to each other."

She introduced her to Crystal. "This is Kayla. She's my good friend."

Crystal reached out her hand. "Nice to meet you."

However, Kayla smiled contemptuously and ignored her. She directly held Dora's arm and took her forward. "If you don't come soon, the black tea I specially prepared for you will be cold. Let's go."

Dora wanted to look back at Crystal, but a group of people surrounded her and pushed her to the garden. Crystal stayed alone in the same place. If it were anyone else, they would definitely feel extremely embarrassed. However, Crystal's eyes were full of little desserts, so she naturally followed them, which made everyone look at her with even more disdain.

chair beside her and said, a little unhappy. This position used to belong to

Your husband is lying in the coffin, and you are fooling around everywhere. I don't know if Master White will feel uneasy in

"Why don't you go down

White is still alive, do you think it

"If he were still alive, he would

Everyone sneered.

When Master White was alive, he didn't even take Rose seriously. How could he fall in felt a didn't these people

really nice

didn't intend to lie to these people and seriously eat the cake.

didn't perform well in the college

Don't mention this. Crystal