

Widow 208

Chapter 208

Kayla and the others also felt that what they had said before seemed to be a slap in the face. Crystal said that she had never heard of Colun University, probably because of her good grades. As long as she knew the top universities, there was no need for her to care about Colun University.

“You...” Kayla said with a ferocious look on her face, “You deliberately fooled us, didn’t you? You scored 704 but you said you screwed it up. You just want to laugh at us, don’t you?”

Crystal was confused.

Could this person really get into college with her brains?

But there were still people who agreed with such stupid remarks. “Yes! You did it for today, didn’t you? You are very proud of yourself, aren’t you?”

Crystal was even more confused.

What kind of confusing speech was that?

not living in the mortal world anymore. She “Crystal... You said that you failed your exam even with this score... That’s not good, isn’t

“I could’ve scored higher than 720. It’s not wrong for me to

Everyone was speechless.

you even know

than 720. She screwed it up when she

to strangle Crystal

to swear, but she found that she had nothing to say at all. She was so embarrassed that she wanted to find a hole to hide in after thinking about what she had said before! Pheasant university, for someone to score 704, then they wouldn’t need to live anymore. Crystal finished eating Kayla’s cake and felt quite full. She also felt that she had completed the deal with Antony. So she stood up and said, “I’ll go first then? You guys have

Everyone was speechless.

one

that good at studying? Why would anyone say that she got into existence four years ago. However, the only thing they did for about his daughter, so naturally, no one inquired about Crystal. All the rumors about Crystal in Fairby came from Debbie and Mia. Dora had thought about