

Widow 212

Chapter 212

Crystal couldn't believe what she heard. "...Bury her with Harold?"

Harold had said that he would die with Crystal before, but it was obvious that he was teasing. Crystal. However, Bonnie was obviously serious.

Crystal's entire body was covered in mud. When she looked up, she saw an indifferent expression on Bonnie's face. For a moment, Crystal thought that it was very common for Bonnie to allow a person to be buried alive.

Kimberly helped Bonnie up. She looked at Crystal and said, "Do you really think that you're here to enjoy a happy life after marrying into the White family?"

"You are breaking the law..." Crystal stood up with the help of the coffin. She touched the phone in her pocket with her fingers. When she was about to make a phone call, she heard Kimberly say, "Don't waste your time. There is a signal jammer here, and the phone calls can't go through at all."

Crystal froze. She took out her phone and looked at it, only to find that there was no signal.

They were well prepared!

even if Harold dies, marrying him will still be

"That's right. This is "Old Madam, we've already checked. As long as we bury them, the

you. As long as those spirits no longer pester me, I will core ideology

curious about why Bonnie wanted the Evans family to carry out the engagement, and why did she need someone to marry Harold? It turned out that this

at Crystal. "Shut

know? If that b*tch hadn't been pestering me, I wouldn't have energy

didn't know who she was talking about, but the expression on Bonnie's face was terrifying. If it weren't for the deep hatred, she wouldn't have such die prematurely. Now that I've connected the red line between you and Master Crystal was speechless.

angry. "It's okay if you want to bury me alive, but you still say that I was supposed to die