

Widow 232

Chapter 232

"It seems that she really knows how to confuse people." Marcus leaned against the armrest of the sofa and lit a cigarette. He had been in the entertainment circle for many years, and almost no one knew that he smoked.

Compared to Marcus, Antony was more willing to get along with Danny. Although Danny was ruthless, at least he never hid his bad intentions. He was not like Marcus, who was obviously evil and cold-hearted, but would disguise himself as a gentleman.

"Brother." Antony's voice was a little heavy. "Don't you think that she is also the victim of this matter?"

Marcus paused, and his amber eyes reflected Antony's face. Then he smiled and said, "But she survived."

"It's too unfair, brother." Antony wiped his face and said, "You're not like this to Dora."

"Because Dora is not my biological sister," Marcus said coldly.

"Second brother!"

up and said, "It seems we have nothing to talk about.

back and suddenly said, "In fact, in this family, you don't care about anyone, do

Marcus did not answer.

In the White Group.

widened as he said, "How can you treat me like this?! I'm the general manager, true that..." He sighed and said, "It's not suitable for you to continue to teeth and said, "Where's Harold? Ask him now." Luke said, "He doesn't have time to see you. Besides, the decision. to ask you to step down from the position of general manager is decided by the

Who doesn't know that Harold is the person in charge of the White Group? Has his conscience been eaten by a dog?! I'm