

Widow 249

Chapter 249

Anaya waited at the airport for half an hour and did not see the person she was going to pick up. She called her boyfriend Jared and said, "Didn't you say that the plane would arrive at half past five? It's almost six o'clock."

Jared said, "Oh, the flight is delayed. Didn't I tell you? I probably forgot. It will take another two hours to reach. Anaya, why don't you come back first?"

"It's okay." Anaya said, "The airport is far away. It's troublesome to come and go. I'll wait here."

Jared said, "It's all my fault... If I had told you in advance, you wouldn't have waited in vain. I'm sorry, Anaya."

"You don't have to apologize." Anaya sat down on the chair and said, "You can eat first. Don't starve."

Jared said, "I still want to eat your cooking."

Anaya forced a smile and said, "I really can't do it now... Have some first. I'll cook for you when I get home."

at something in the void. Her eyes had no focus, so it was hard

She slowly sat up from the chair and found the exit. Not long after, she saw Mrs. Turner and Sarita. Back then, when Anaya first met the mother-and-daughter pair, Anaya said, "It must pushed the two suitcases to Anaya without any psychological pressure. She took off her sunglasses and asked,

said, "We'll go out and get Anaya incredulously. "You didn't

her lips and said, "I

so I sold

Turner said, "How can I rest assured to leave Jared is with you? What have you done that you needed to sell the suitcase tightly, "Didn't Jared want to invest in shares before, that it's all my son's fault?" Mrs. Turner's voice suddenly became sharp. "It's head. "I've been working hard to to listen to your nonsense. Hurry up and leave. The