

Widow 25

Chapter 25

The Evans family wasn't as wealthy and powerful as the White family, but it was also a rich and famous family living in a villa built on a mountain. Their car had to go on a meandering path toward the top of the mountain. The three people inside the car stayed silent all the time.

Antony got out of the car first, striding into the villa on his long legs. He didn't even care about Crystal behind. Obviously, he was still angry.

The crystal chandelier illuminated the entire living room. Eva was waiting for them there. As their stepmother, she didn't dare to slack off. She had always treated them carefully to earn their favor.

Seeing Antony, she quickly stepped forward and asked with concern, "Antony, how was it going? Madam White didn't say anything nasty, did she?"

"Hmph, how could she say nothing? But I brought Crystal back." Antony sat on the sofa, placing his long legs that crossed at the ankles on the coffee table. "I really don't understand why Mother wanted to have a marriage engagement with the White family."

for so many years, and they wanted their children to marry each other. Unfortunately, Madam White doesn't like Harold's mother. That's why she the White family. After all, Harold's mother was dead, and the whole White family was in the hands of that old lady. Dora would be bullied to death wrapped her arms around Eva's arm intimately.

with a smile, "Why shouldn't I wait for you? When I knew that you guys were heading to the White family, I was so worried. Madam White is a fierce person, isn't she? Did she bully you?" "No, there were many people at that time. They couldn't go too far." Dora said, "Now that Master White is dead and the White family has lost their backbone, they have to restrain themselves." Eva

I'm not going to have it. I've gained a lot of weight. I can't even put on my this. Crystal suddenly felt that she was so isolated. She stood at the there, Eva's face turned indifferent. "Crystal, your father has gone to the company to deal with

with a

me take

stood up and swept his gaze across Crystal then Dora. "Go