

Widow 255

Chapter 255

When these men of aristocratic families talked to Crystal, they were very easygoing. As long as she called them intimately, they would give her everything she wanted. But after all, they were raised by rich and powerful families, so they had a lot of bad habits, not to mention that they were still in the military academy. They were as rogue as gangsters, as shameless as they could be. Moreover, they drank a little wine, which made them even more unhappy.

Mason patted the boss's shoulder and said, "Fine, we will not make things difficult for you. Just tell us, who are you serving that it's causing such a big commotion? When we came here to play, you never made such a scene."

The boss cupped one hand in the other before his chest and said, "Childe Simmons, Childe Duffy, please let this slide. Why not I go to you and apologize on one of the days? I..."

Before he could finish his words, Crystal poked Antony's arm and said softly. "Since he can't serve us, let's go."

Everyone paused for a moment, and Freud said unhappily, "I thought of showing you my shooting skills."

"I know that your shooting skills are very good." Crystal narrowed her eyes. "You can show it to me on another day."

The boss looked at Crystal as if he had seen an angel descending from heaven.

said so, let's go

boss, "Boss, the person inside said that since it all over his face. "Oh, you are Miss Evans. Come on, come on in."

eyes and stopped Crystal.

coughed. "It's... Young

Everyone was speechless.

No wonder, gotten angry at home that he came to the shooting range. It was improper if did Corey... let Crystal

"What's

said, "The relationship between the victim and then I caused him to be beaten... It's very complicated. I think he wants me to go in because

"What's there to be afraid of? I'm here. Do you think he will kill you in