

Widow 259

Chapter 259

Crystal felt that Corey's words were full of sarcasm. However, Corey was very eccentric, so she didn't pay much attention to it. Instead, she said, "He also raises cats. We all like cats. Why would he strangle me?"

She thought of something and said, "Ah, I forgot. You fight with each other as soon as you meet. Can I go and see it secretly?"

Corey's lips curled into a smile. "Secretly?"

Crystal said seriously, "I'll keep it low profile!"

"...Okay." Corey gave her a playful smile. "Send me a message when you're free. Just come and take a look."

Crystal said seriously, "Corey, I've decided to change my stereotype of you. You're not someone rigid. In fact, you are also a good person."

Corey, who had received a good comment, asked, "What is your stereotype of me?"

insane..." Corey smiled and said, "If you shut up now, I can let you Crystal immediately shut up.

the competition had already been determined. In the end, Antony won the championship. Crystal, shoulder and said, "Thank you. You don't have to praise me. I can't have today's achievements all thanks to myself for my talent. I am born with this. You can't be couldn't help cursing, "F*ck, Antony, why are you so annoying?" Seeing that they were about to fight, Crystal and was too strong, but it's okay. It it was only red and swollen, said, "If you go on,

as you say a word, I will help you beat him until he fun,

it too! I can't stand this anymore." Someone raised

do it

go for supper? I want to eat roasted