

Widow 26

Chapter 26

Crystal thought to herself, "Oh no, is he going to vent his anger on her again?"

Antony looked solemn. "Crystal!"

His tone was dead serious, which was different from the way he lost his temper previously, and it confused Crystal. "Why did you call me?"

Antony was silent for a moment before he finally spoke up. "You're still young. Don't give to money. Do you think you would have the life to spend it?"

Crystal did not understand what he meant. "What are you talking about? How come I understand nothing?"

When the Evans family's car arrived at Sunshine Village, her grandmother and mother almost threw her into the car. She didn't even have a chance to ask.

She didn't know that the Evans family had spent 15,000 dollars to buy her back. So, in these people's thought, she was a girl who didn't want to live a tough life in the countryside. Even if she had to become a widow, she was willing to marry into the White family to enjoy the glory and wealth. Crystal actually thought that her life in the countryside wasn't really good, and it would be nice to return to her real family. Unfortunately, fate had played tricks on her again. She accepted it calmly and didn't resist, but everyone here said that she came to steal things from Dora...
