

Widow 264

Chapter 264

“What do you know at such a young age?” Alan scolded his younger brother. “Don’t pretend to be mature.”

Leroy curled his lips and said, “You must really like her back then, right? Otherwise, you wouldn’t have promised our parents to take over the company in order to be with her... She would never know how much you have sacrificed for her.”

Alan just shook his head and smiled. “It’s all in the past. Why are you still talking about it?”

Leroy suddenly said, “Brother, I’m sorry.”

“Hmm?”

“If I hadn’t insisted on going to the military academy, our parents wouldn’t have insisted on asking you to take over the company...” Leroy pursed his lips. “I was too selfish.”

“What’s the point of saying that between brothers?” Alan touched his head and said, “Otherwise, I’d feel ashamed when you call me brother.”

“Whether in the lab or in the about to say something when Alan said, “Well, it’s getting late. Go to sleep.

“... Okay.”

his

was no place for him was going to get married next month, but he didn’t feel excited at all. Just like when he promised to give up chemistry, he didn’t even feel reluctant to part that his behavior was

wanted,

in the morning. She had already started with the embroidery. When the petals of the peony were about to be embroidered, Anaya hurried over and said, “I’m sorry...” She gasped for breath and looked at the time. “I am late are you in such a hurry? Was there a traffic

a moment, and then said, “... No, there’s something going Crystal said, “Do you want to ask for leave to go

The dress has to be ready next month. I can’t ask for saw a scar on Anaya’s arm. It seemed to be