

Widow 265

Chapter 265

Anaya lowered her head and said, "...I've been delayed by something, but it doesn't hurt that much. actually."

The nurse said, "How can it not hurt? It's such a big burn! You must take care of it and make sure that your wound stays dry. It will be troublesome if you get infected."

Anaya thanked her. Crystal carried the medicine for her. The two of them took the elevator together. Anaya said, "I've really troubled you too much today. Just let me take the medicine..."

"It's fine." Crystal said, "It's not heavy."

Anaya didn't insist.

Crystal suddenly said, "Anaya, I find that you really don't cherish yourself."

Anaya was stunned. "What?"

matter what you have experienced, there is still a long way to go. If you don't love
the girl's clear

a pair of clean eyes as clean as the deer

"I was really just careless... It's want to say more, Crystal didn't continue to ask and went back an internal phone call came in. The receptionist said about it before she hurried downstairs. She saw Kimberly sitting on the sofa drinking coffee in the reception area on

Crystal was a

come

Madam." Crystal greeted her politely. "Is there anything I can help you with, up at Crystal and said, "If possible, I didn't want to come to you stood up and said, "Harold has grounded Old Madam wanted to bury me alive. I didn't call the calmed down again. "I can't be bothered to lower myself to the level of a country bumpkin like you! The reason why I came here today is that the old madam is