

Widow 288

Chapter 288

Ariel said slowly, "I heard that you are going to marry Jared soon. We're going to form our own family. Let's not talk about the past. I've let it go, and so should you."

Anaya bit the corner of her lips and slowly stretched out her hand to receive the invitation card. She didn't feel much pain from the burn on her arm before, but at this moment, the piece of flesh suddenly hurt so much that she almost dropped the invitation card with no weight.

Looking at her like this, Ariel sneered and said, "When you marry Jared, don't forget my invitation card."

She reached out to hold Anaya's hand, and the smile on her face was arrogant. "Although we had arguments before, I still hope that you will live a good life."

The onlookers couldn't help but sigh at the First Miss Ariel's good temper. Her fiance had been seduced by Anaya before, but now that she was getting married, she was willing to invite Anaya to attend the wedding and she still wished her the best.

There was such a big gap between them.

in a

his identity, you looked for him again and begged

looked at

paused. "What do you said, "I just feel that you've repeated these words again and again. Aren't changed and she said, "Anaya, am I not

but

as if it would be blown away as soon as the Ariel going to hold a wedding next month?" Crystal squeezed through the crowd and walked to Anaya.

She looked at narrowed her eyes. "Who are

knew, Anaya had