

Widow 292

Chapter 292

Dana did make a lot of delicious food today. Crystal forgot everything as soon as she ate. Naturally, she did not notice the change in Harold's behavior after she ran away.

After dinner, Crystal suddenly remembered what had happened to Anaya. Although Anaya had said that Ariel was telling the truth, Crystal did not believe what she had said. She asked Harold, "Master White, do you know Alan?"

Harold paused for a moment. "You mean the eldest son of the Shamus Family? I don't really know him. I only met him once at the party."

The Shamus family was a noble and wealthy family in Fairby, but they could not compete with the White family. Alan had been very successful in recent years and was a new upstart in a famous shopping mall. However, to Harold, he was nothing more than a young man who could be considered eye-catching.

Hearing this, Crystal quickly moved closer to Harold and said, "Then do you know about him and his ex-girlfriend six years ago?"

and looked at Crystal.

Crystal was confused.

"I'm not as can just say you don't know. There's no need to scold me.

some news," Harold said. "But why should immediately frowned. "Just tell me about

Harold's arm and down on her head. "If you keep shaking, I'll be arms around Harold's neck, and kissed him on how much others have to pay me if they

"I don't want to hear the price that I the sofa and said casually, "Six years ago, the matter got quite big. I