

Widow 296

Chapter 296

"Sounds good." Anaya filled a bowl of soup and said lightly.

Mrs. Turner said, "You're clear about your brother-in-law's condition. He has found a shop. The rent for a year is 50,000 dollars. Now he can only take out five thousand dollars. He still needs 45,000 dollars. You see if..."

"I don't have money." Anaya put down the spoon and said, "I am in debt."

Sarita immediately said. "You don't have money?! Don't think that I don't know. Your current studio gives you a salary of a few thousand dollars a month. You also take freelance jobs. Your salary will go up to five figures after adding everything up. But now, you're saying that you don't have money?" "Sarita!" Mrs. Turner scolded, "How can you talk to her like this?"

Sarita tossed her chopsticks and said, "Did I say anything wrong!? I have never seen such an ungrateful person! Back then, how much did Jared suffer because of her? His leg was injured and he was expelled from the school. Yet she is not even willing to give me 40,000 dollars. I have never seen such a selfish person!"

be the good cop. She held Anaya's hand and said, "Anaya, over the past few years, you have suffered still so young. The milk powder and diapers to watch the three of

I have at least given you 200,000 dollars for your businesses, but you didn't even succeed once. If no longer maintain her image of being kind. She said, "Anaya, think about it yourself. Don't you think what you said is sarcastic? Although you haven't eggs that cost only a one?"

"You!"

time, finally spoke. He frowned and looked at Anaya. "Since when did you become like Anaya was stunned.

did you become so calculative? Do you have to go against our