

Widow 298

Chapter 298

“What do you mean?!” Jared’s expression instantly became ferocious. “If he doesn’t get married, will you still keep thinking about him?! I know... I know you can’t forget him!”

Seeing that he was about to go crazy again, Anaya quickly stepped back and said with a frown, “Jared! Have you done enough?! I have told you very clearly that I will not leave you alone. I will repay what I owe you with my whole life. Have I not done enough for the past six years?”

Jared’s voice trembled. “But you don’t love me... you don’t love me!”

Anaya suddenly felt that it was ridiculous.

She looked at Jared quietly for a long time, and then it seemed that she was finally defeated. She said. “Jared, does it matter whether I love you or not? Anyway, we will be together. It’s meaningless to make everything so clear. We might as well keep something to ourselves. It’s good for both you and me.”
