

Widow 302

Chapter 302

The old man was worried that he would implicate Crystal. "You... don't have to force yourself..."

"It's okay." Crystal said, "Let's go."

Anaya tugged Crystal's arm and asked. "Is it really okay?"

Crystal made a hand gesture and said. "It's fine. I've already asked for help."

Anaya took a deep breath. "Let's go then."

When Herman was drinking with others, the people at the same table whistled. He knew that the others saw a young girl. He turned his head with the beer in his hand and saw two young girls standing together with an old man.

Herman naturally knew the

said. "You stepped on the chair and looked at the old man with narrowed eyes. "What do you mean by returning it back to you? Isn't that 300 dollars for me to buy myself a meal and beer?"

that he trembled all over. "You're shameless! That's my life-saving money! Aren't you snorted. "Struck by lightning? You're cursing to fight. with you. Why are two steps forward and grabbed the old man's collar. He clenched his fists and was about to strike.

Crystal quickly pushed him away and a malicious smile. "If I gangsters behind him all laughed, village. Debbie said that she was coquettish and even seduced an old man. Crystal couldn't bear it and called the police. It was a big incident in Sunshine Village. It was said. that she had no human nature.

They were from the same village but she was cruel enough to send him did not expect that there would be such hooligans in a big city like

of the