

Widow 309

Chapter 309

After the meal, Crystal asked the old man to contact those people. At first, they didn't want to see each other again. The old man begged again and again and they finally agreed.

The meeting place was set to be at a teahouse.

Anaya looked at the time and said, "The lunch break is almost over. I'll go back first."

She shrugged helplessly. "If I am late, my performance would be affected. I am unlike you."

Crystal nodded, and then Anaya left first.

Antony sat on one side and poured tea into the three cups with a teapot. The tea was the new tea of this year. It was not an expensive variety, but a loose tea made by the tea farmers. It had a unique flavor.

"What happened to the White family?" Antony asked.

that Bonnie still hasn't given up on Cyril. She's trying her best ignore the law. They

Crystal asked, "Aren't you

"What kind of look is that? The Evans family has never done such a thing. If I were a b*stard like Cyril, I would have been beaten to death by my father before the police could savage? He even treated Antony like this, so he such a family that I've seen so many people," Antony said in a light

Crystal, "!"

her eyes. "Is

and said, "Don't ask around. Tie yourself a red scarf

"I'm already had just finished speaking when he saw a few plainly dressed people quickly stood up and waved his people looked at Crystal and Antony and walked over fearfully. Crystal found that most of them were middle-aged, and the oldest should be more than 60 years old. Among them, a middle-aged woman was holding a seven