

Widow 316

Chapter 316

“Have a good talk?” Eric sneered. “Does he look like he wants to have a good talk with me?”

Alda looked at Corey with a frown. “Corey, you’re always so straightforward...”

Corey showed a fake smile. “You don’t need to pretend to be a good person here.”

“Listen to what he just said!” Eric said, “His words are all very harsh. Why should I come here to be pissed by him?”

After saying that, Eric turned around and was about to leave. Alda pulled him back and said, “Alright, alright, Eric. Corey is your own son. It’s not appropriate for you two to remain in a deadlock like this. You need to interact more and be together more often before you can...”

Corey was completely impatient. “What are you doing here?”

said, “Didn’t I tell you? You haven’t been home for a long time. Your father and I came to her eyes at that moment made Crystal very uncomfortable.

Eric heard this, he also began

“No,” Corey replied coldly.

a girl to Pina Garden before. It’s time for younger than Corey, but she spoke like an elder. Those who didn’t know her would really think that she

If it had been in the past, he would have been angry at this time. However, considering that Crystal, who was as timid as a rabbit, was here today, he suppressed his temper and said, “Does it have anything girlfriend, you have to introduce her to us. Today, both your father and I are here... Why don’t we have a meal together? We can get to know looked at Crystal and said softly, “Miss, what do you

Crystal was confused.

said coldly. He grabbed Crystal’s arm