

Widow 326

Chapter 326

Crystal hid behind Harold and said, "I thought it would be fine after she apologized, but there are still other things?"

Harold said, "Some people won't learn their lesson if they are not taught enough."

Crystal nodded, indicating that she had been taught enough.

Eric suppressed his anger. "Then what do you plan to do?"

Harold raised his eyebrows and said, "Mrs. Coombs doesn't know that trouble comes from words. Shouldn't Mr. Coombs teach her properly?"

Alda seemed to have realized something. She stared fixedly at Eric. "Eric, how dare you!"

Eric took a deep breath and said slowly, "Alda, I'm doing this for your own good."

"You... you can't..." Alda hurriedly tried to run, but the bodyguards immediately stopped her. She was trapped in her current position and couldn't move. She could only watch as Eric approached. Eric closed his eyes and suddenly raised his hand. He slammed his palm viciously on Alda's face, instantly causing her head to tilt to the side. Blood flowed out from the corner of her lips. Half of her face quickly became red and swollen, and the bright red fingerprints were especially frightening. Alda cried out, but Eric ignored her.

had used too much strength to slap her just now. His hand was numb, but he still struggled to look at Harold, almost gnashing his teeth.

use of me being satisfied?" Harold pulled Crystal out and pinched her cheeks.

and felt the pain. However, she did not pity Alda. If Harold did not come today,

"She's still pregnant.

"Since she has chosen to forgive

Eric was speechless.

and been slapped by

was so angry that he almost spat out you'd better educate your wife well in the future." Harold said slowly, "After all, not everyone is as soft-hearted and easy-going as my wife. If Mrs. Coombs offends anyone else,

"...That's for glanced at Corey and grabbed Crystal's

"oh" and was led out of the

He roared,

cried and said, "Aren't you powerful? Why laughed at Alda's