

Widow 328

Chapter 328

Crystal was led out of the villa by Harold. While walking, she said, "I have a bold guess. I want to ask you for confirmation."

Harold, "Go ahead."

Crystal cleared her throat and said, "Alda is Corey's stepmother, isn't she?"

"Yes."

Crystal said, "Do you think there's a possibility-that there is any other relationship between Alda and Corey other than a mother-and-son relationship?"

"..." Harold stopped and looked at her.

Crystal, "... Is this idea a little too shocking?"

Harold said, "I'm just surprised that you've suddenly become a little smarter."

Crystal, "??"

said, "Tell Mrs. White

White, Alda's father was a gambler, and her mother was a prostitute. Her life has determined her personality since she was a child. Originally, she would have followed the same path as her mother, but once she came out to receive guests, at first sight? That's she could take the opportunity to give birth to his child so that she could marry him. However, she had never expected that her carefully calculated plan would go not Corey, but Corey's father, Eric." "Alda was about to go crazy with anger, but she could only run away in a hurry, for fear that this matter of this child. After all, the person she likes is Corey. How could she be pregnant with Eric's before her abortion, she was very indifferent, which made Alda realize that she might never be able to climb up this high and a crazy idea, which was to marry Eric. At least in this way, she she hates me so much... She couldn't get Corey and wanted to prevent others from nodded. "It's probably because of this was much more exciting than a

Love in the World" did not have such a twisted and

Crystal raised

