

Widow 330

Chapter 330

Renata was pregnant again.

Eric knew very well that this child wasn't his, but he didn't react in the slightest. He only watched coldly as Renata found her true love. He watched as Renata gave birth to the child happily. He watched as Renata registered the child under the name of the Coombs family.

She named the girl Felicia.

Eric didn't react at all from the beginning to the end.

He seemed to have forgotten Trista's death and lived like a pool of stagnant water.

It was a pity that Renata's good life didn't last long.

The person she liked had already had his own family, and he was a complete gambler. He was only with Renata for money. Renata did not want to see him being so useless and refused to give him money again. Therefore, the tenderness between the two was completely destroyed.

The man abducted Felicia and asked Renata to give him a ransom of 10 million dollars. Otherwise, he would kill Felicia.

Eric locked Renata in the Coombs family's old house.
