

Widow 356

Chapter 356

"You're right," Harold said. "Since you're already so sweet, you should eat less."

Crystal hugged the box warily. "Even if I were just a candy bean, I would still need to replenish the sugar."

Harold said, "I'm not going to take away your fruits. You've eaten too much. Do you want to have a nosebleed tomorrow morning?"

Crystal took two out of the box painfully and said, "I'll eat the rest tomorrow then."

Seeing her pitiful state, Harold took two more lychees from the box and placed them in her hands. Then, he handed the boxes to Dana and told her to put them away.

Crystal looked at the four lychees and sighed. "I think my stomach is very good. I don't think my nose is going to bleed..."
