

Widow 361

Chapter 361

Crystal looked at him warily. "Is there anything else?"

Danny had no expression on his face, but his eyes were particularly cold. He said lightly, "Since you are so good at fortune-telling, didn't you predict that you would meet me here today?"

"..." Crystal said, "I don't predict things every day, but... why did you come to the hospital?"

"To visit a patient." Danny's tone was cold. "My fiancée."

Crystal, "..."

Crystal, "?"

"Could it be..." Crystal turned his head to look at Danny. "Could it be that you also have a fiancée who had been arranged for you?"

Danny narrowed and there are often things like arranged marriages." Crystal made up stories.

steering wheel moved. He looked at Danny's engagement. She asked

and said,

Crystal, "?!"

to get married, she ran away from the wedding with someone else. There was a car accident on the way, and she lost her mind when she to have such a miserable love life. Not only did his wife run away with someone else on their wedding day, but she had

"What about the man who took her to accident was very serious. He died

Crystal said in a tender tone, "You're already so

asked, "What do you

Danny and Harold

that he was old. So she said