

Widow 364

Chapter 364

In the past, when Mark was still the general manager, she had never been treated like this! Kimberly was so angry that her face turned green. She suppressed her anger and said, "Okay, I won't go up directly. Ask Luke to come and see me."

The receptionist was still polite. "I'm sorry, Madam. Assistant Britton is also very busy. He should be having a meeting at this time and he can't leave..."

Before she finished her words, she saw Assistant Britton, who was busy with the meeting, come out of the elevator. He looked around at the door and then looked at one of the places. He smiled and said, "Young Madam."

The receptionist was speechless.

The receptionist felt that her story had been ruined.

is this what you

said, "Maybe the meeting is straight to Crystal

quickly stopped him and politely, "What's ask. Even if Luke was just an assistant, she had to be humble enough. So she squeezed out a smile and said, "Assistant Britton, is Harold free now? I have something to tell him... or you take said, "Sorry, Master White is very busy, does he still does he still have time to see me since he's so sighed and said, "Second Madam, if you are here for Second Young Master's business, I advise you to go back directly. This matter is originally unreasonable. Master White has shown mercy and sent him to the police station. After that, he didn't intervene in the matter anymore. Second Young Master has to is going to be shot to death!" Kimberly shouted, "You said he didn't interfere, but the judge knows Harold, so he didn't dare to drag it on. It's all thanks to him that the case would be taken care of