

Widow 372

Chapter 372

Harold glanced at Crystal and said, "I don't know why I would have a girlfriend even though I'm so stingy... Why don't you tell me what you like about me?"

Crystal said with a serious face, "I like that you are poor, old and that you don't take a bath."

Harold was speechless.

Crystal approached him with a smile. "I'm talking nonsense. I like that you look good."

The boss was heartbroken. "Girl, you better not be fooled by a man's looks. The more handsome a man is, the more he will lie! He didn't even buy a 5 dollar rabbit ear hair band for you today. He may even let you go out to pick up rubbish tomorrow!"

Crystal said affectionately, "It doesn't matter. On account of his looks, I'm willing to pick up rubbish to raise him."

The boss was speechless.

The boss was stunned. After a long silence, he said, "This hair band is my gift to you. I hope your love will last for a long time."

Crystal was overjoyed. "Thank you, thank you. You are really a good person."
