

Widow 373

Chapter 373

They rode on the roller coaster and Crystal was dragged out of the exit by Harold. She stepped on the ground and looked up at Harold after a long while. "I'm a little dizzy."

Harold said, "Did you feel dizzy because you shouted so loudly that you were short of oxygen?"

Crystal said, "I feel very excited and want to have a go again."

"The people in front of you looked back at you just now because of your screams." Harold said, "I thought you were scared to tears."

"I didn't cry!" Crystal was very unconvinced and said, "If we do it again, I will definitely not scream this time."

"It's too hot now." Harold opened the umbrella to shield her from the sunlight. "Let's play after the sun is not so bright."

Crystal said to him, "I want to eat ice cream then"

"Okay."

Crystal picked the biggest ice cream. She held the cool ice cream bucket and was very happy. "All hail ice cream!"

A child next to her saw it and pulled the hem of his mother's clothes "Mom, I want to eat that ice cream too!"

her son. She said, "I'm poor and I'm not as rich as that sister's parents. We're

The kid was stunned.

home with her parents then. I

The mother was speechless.

little boy and said, "She comes home with me to warm up my bed. What can Crystal was speechless.

"What nonsense are out that only an adult would have dirty thoughts. A three-year-old child didn't know anything. He blinked his eyes and said, "I

The mother was speechless.

her son and said, "I'll buy it for you! Why are you so talkative? You're willing to follow a stranger home for ice cream. I've raised you for tried his best to prove that he could the child's mouth with her hands. "I'm sorry. He means no

be the

his eyebrows.

into his mouth and told him to

with the happy child in her arms. Crystal breathed a sigh of children in the

you think too much? I just said it