

Widow 378

Chapter 378

Crystal walked into the toilet. There were not many rides around, so there was basically no one there. The toilet was empty.

She washed her hands and splashed some cold water on her face. But when she looked up, she still saw her red face in the mirror.

Crystal sighed.

In terms of being a hooligan, she couldn't win against Harold.

Crystal put her hands to dry underneath the dryer. When the water on her hands dried up, she turned around and was about to leave. Suddenly, she saw another figure in the mirror.

...To be exact, it was a doll.

He looked like a little bear with a silly and lovely smile on his face. Crystal subconsciously narrowed her eyes and wanted to say hello to the bear, but she suddenly smelled a pungent smell. She felt dizzy and could not stand steadily, so she fell on the bear.

Harold waited outside for about five minutes.

his phone and called Crystal. The phone was turned

His phone suddenly rang. The caller's a voice-changing device and said in a

in my

"If you're tired of living, just say seems that you really care about her." The other party's voice was emotionless. "Let's hide her somewhere

I don't want anyone else to participate," the man said, "if there is a third person know your character. Anyone who

You can immediately let your men in. You'll definitely be able to find me and can agree to your request." Harold's voice was very low

"At six o'clock tonight, there will be a grand performance in the park. Find her before the performance be performing in the

you