

Widow 382

Chapter 382

Before she finished her words, her hand was instantly clasped by someone. The intense pain made her facial features look ferocious. "What are you doing?!"

Ever since Harold stopped killing people, he rarely fought with anyone. This person was lucky enough to catch up with him.

The person in charge was shocked. "Sir... Sir, what are you doing?! This is our actress. Please let go..."

"I found three pieces of information with problems," Harold said. "But I only feel that there's something wrong with you. Guess why?"

Kelsey said reluctantly, "What are you talking about? I don't understand... Let go of me, or the performance will be delayed!"

"Your information is perfect." Harold laughed. "But you overlooked something."

"...What?"

managed to become the main character. Logically speaking, this process requires approval. However, you were able in charge was stunned. "What, what do you mean, sir? Isn't she about it." Harold for the special forces. Even someone as skilled as me can be seen through by you." She giggled, and her voice instantly became different from the previous tenderness. Instead, it was very lively and sweet. "I am indeed not Everyone was shocked.

Idelle shivered and said, "You look... You look the same as the game. If the performance is not held as scheduled, you will be the one to suffer the biggest loss." Speaking of this, she sighed again. "If I had known this would happen, I would have followed my brother's words and wouldn't have come to get involved in this mess.

go

with a smile, "Since you've found me, I'll give words, there was a sudden chill on her neck-a shiny dagger was

A dagger? The cast and crew were so scared that they were about to go crazy. The person in charge was tangible. "I promise that I won't let you see

can testify that he