

Widow 389

Chapter 389

In the study.

Harold pinched the space between his eyebrows and said in a tired voice, "I'll have to trouble you."

"It's rare." On the other side of the phone, Larry said with a smile, "You are so polite to me. Have you been possessed?"

Harold, "Let's find a time to have a fight."

Larry said, "Forget it, forget it. I've never defeated you... But I do have a clue. Thanks to Luke who found something wrong when he received your call and contacted me in advance. Otherwise, we wouldn't even find this clue."

"Say it."

"My people have already asked the director of the park." Larry flipped a few sheets of paper and said, "This amusement park has recently received an investment. Guess what's the name of the investor?"

at all.

Hey, don't hang up. Why are you so boring?" Larry seem to be shocked.

million dollars. That was why the park publicized this performance very much, which attracted a huge number of people to the park today. According to what you said, this is another kind of performance in a sense. Angus spent five million dollars

chair got turned

the moon outside the

a crescent moon hanging in the sky today. The faint crescent moon gave off a faint light, making the sky

Larry's voice sounded in his ear. "But just like the previous investigation, Angus is using a fake identity, and his funds were directly transferred from an overseas account. We can't find any clues. But... I have

Angus

clearly, it was said that only about eighteen or nineteen years old," Harold said. "She has a strange personality

was stunned. "Oh my god, you even know

voice was very

"Did you even ask your sweetie pie how did