

Widow 394

Chapter 394

Crystal and Anaya matched all the details. After confirming that there were no problems with the clothes, they called Mrs. Mcadams to try them on.

Mrs. Mcadams was a plump and beautiful woman as described in the details. Even though she was in her forties, she was still very beautiful and glamorous. There was another woman behind her. She was probably her friend.

Edna walked into the office and was stunned when she saw the person inside. She immediately asked, "Where's Christy?"

Anaya said, "Mrs. Mcadams, your list was accepted by another embroiderer. We called you before. Do you still remember?"

Edna thought for a moment and found that it seemed to be true.

Edna took a fancy to her dress and came to Christy's studio to make a dress. As a result, Christy said that she was busy with another job, so she could embroiderer, but Christy kept saying that the new embroiderer was very skillful. She didn't lack such a small sum of money, so she decided to buy one. However, she didn't have any high hopes for it. It was purely for Christy's sake. After that, she flew you the

to meet

frowned. "You

Her family was not as good as Edna's, but because of the good relationship between their mothers, Edna had a good relationship with her. "Is Christy crazy?" Selena said, "She actually let such a person take up this job...

unhappy and said, "Forget embroiderer is young, her embroidery skills are good. Would you like to now you have learned to lie? Aletta has been with Christy for so long, but she has not yet learned the special embroidery technique. How can