

Widow 414

Chapter 414

Anaya bought frozen shrimp in a nearby supermarket. After returning home, Sarita did not find anything different. After dinner, Anaya washed the dishes silently. Suddenly, Jared walked into the kitchen and said, "Anaya, it's Alan's wedding tomorrow. Why aren't you prepared?"

"What should I prepare?" Anaya asked.

Jared smiled and said, "Ariel humiliated you so much before. Of course, you should dress up properly, steal her limelight, and vent your anger."

"If someone else gets married, why should I steal the limelight?" Anaya lowered her eyes, put the bowl into the disinfectant, and said lightly, "Besides, Ariel was not humiliating me. She was just telling the truth."

She tilted her head and looked at Jared. "Don't you know it best?"

Jared forced a smile and said, "Don't mention the past... Actually, I want to ask you, since Alan is getting married, when will we get married?"

"There's no rush." Anaya slowly wiped the counter clean. "I think your mom and sister don't want to accept me."

the wedding, let's pick a good day

she smiled and said, "Okay." Jared was happy. He was so excited that he wanted

Jared said, "Are you still unwilling to let me expression slowly changed. "Anaya, who are you staying in you, how can I say that I'm staying in chastity?" Anaya walked out of the range. that he could cover, opened the refrigerator, and sorted out the ingredients inside. "Jared, I've already promised it's not enough." Jared said, "In recent years, I've and added, "Just like

Anaya didn't say anything.

"You can do anything for Alan. I also want to have such closed the refrigerator and said coldly,

the kitchen and there was not much inside. She sat on the bed for a long time before she closed the door, opened the wardrobe, and took