

Widow 416

Chapter 416

The car fell into a strange silence.

Antony turned around and picked up the bangs on Crystal's forehead. Looking at the girl's delicate face, he paused and then withdrew his hand, saying, "Actually, I think what he said is right. I have a straight man's aesthetic."

If this little girl was brought to the banquet, she would be eaten up by a group of lechers. As expected, the older, the wiser. Harold was very wise.

Crystal was a little annoyed that he messed up her hairstyle and said, "Of course, what Master White said is definitely right."

Antony said in a jealous tone, "Do you really trust Harold that much?"

"Do you think I should trust you more?" Crystal felt that his question was very strange. "Master White is the one who gave me food."

Antony was speechless.
