

Widow 425

Chapter 425

Antony had gone into seclusion with Leroy and the others. There were always people who threw themselves at them and wanted to marry into a rich and powerful family. When they finally managed to sneak out, they heard Mason say, "Something happened to our sister."

"What do you mean by our 'sister'?" Antony said.

"Your sister." Mason said, "A bunch of people in the banquet hall are scolding her."

Antony had just sat on a chair in the garden when he heard these words. He stood up from the chair and asked as he walked to the front hall, "What happened? Why are they scolding her for no reason?!"

Mason explained the whole thing. Freud immediately said, "That's impossible! This is absolutely slander. Crystal is such a good girl. How could she do such a thing?!"

all day long and curse people without knowing anything. With Crystal's cowardly appearance, how could she copy others' work? I don't think she would even dare to her college entrance examination, so she probably didn't need to copy someone else's

Antony was speechless.

sleeves, saying, "Should we go and beat those who scolded her? Can we punch them hard? Can we use a knife or started a fight with Freud. But I don't want to be scolded to death by my mother. What's more, Anaya got involved in this matter. She would probably be even angrier. Freud, Antony, Mason, for my sake, don't and said, "Do you mean that... we can only give others a big Leroy was speechless.

in your house today, but let's make it clear first. If anyone dares to lay Leroy said, "Crystal is such an obedient girl. It's impossible for her to do such a thing. There must be a misunderstanding.

the banquet hall aggressively and saw Anaya

place was in