

Widow 426

Chapter 426

So when she met Anaya's eyes, she just pursed her plump lips and whispered, "Anaya... I don't believe it."

Anaya smiled and said, "The truth is already in front of you. Don't you believe it?"

From the moment Christy asked her to be Crystal's assistant, Crystal had stepped into this trap. The physical data she gave Crystal was not Edna's at all, but Flora's, which was why the size of the cheongsam didn't fit. Later, she said that she would tailor it, but she didn't do it. She just changed the cheongsam Crystal made to the one Christy made.

From the very beginning, Christy wanted to ruin Crystal's reputation so that she would not even mention embroidery again.

And Anaya was Christy's accomplice.

Crystal personally. Anyway, she were watery. "You avoided her gaze and burst into laughter. "Thank you, Crystal. I'm already in a mess, but you're still full of pride-She thought that Anaya was really a help but smile. Anaya took a deep breath and said loudly, "I did steal

then they were stunned. "You stole the design and gave voice was low and fierce. "Anaya, are you crazy!? I have got a hold over you! If I say it out as she had in the past. But my protection..." Anaya muttered. "He has long given up