

Widow 427

Chapter 427

The discussion became louder and louder. Aletta only felt that their saliva could drown people. Although they were scolding Christy, she and Christy were in the same boat. If Christy fell, it would also be a heavy blow to her. She quickly said, "Anaya, don't slander others! You are obviously trying to save Crystal, that's why you are talking nonsense here! You said that my teacher asked you to frame Crystal, but why did you agree to it before and only start rebelling now?! You could have turned her down from the beginning!"

Anaya lowered her head, remained silent for a moment, and then said with a bitter smile, "I didn't refuse at first because I... did want to frame Crystal, but later..."

She took a light breath and said, "She has been pure and kind to me. I really can't bear to frame her. Even if I give up halfway, I know that Christy must have other ways to hurt her. It's better to take advantage of this matter to let everyone see her true colors!"

Aletta froze and quickly looked at Christy, hoping that she could say something.

Christy was much calmer than Aletta at this time. She said, "Anaya, since you said that I was the one behind it, do you have any evidence?"

gave Anaya. If Anaya knew what was good for her, she would stop there, and she would continue to help cover up and said, "When she talked to me, I secretly recorded her voice. This is the

has been so kind to you that she

"She just wants to use

sullen face, Flora said, of them and heard Christy's voice, "...The design came out so soon? Take it out voice. "...Why do we have to asking a question that you already

Anaya didn't say anything.

superficial knowledge in the past.

"... I got it."