“Aunt Marcy.” Dora also walked out at this time. She said to Madam Marcy in a soft voice, “I think my younger sister didn’t say anything wrong. Her request isn’t excessive. Miss Ariel has done something wrong, so she should apologize.”

Lorna looked at her with a look of disappointment. She did not understand why she had to stand out and speak up for Crystal.

Actually, Dora was so angry that her heart was about to bleed.

Sure enough, Antony had changed his attitude toward Crystal and regarded her as his younger sister. She wished that Crystal would die. However, there were so many people here. As someone who had been mistaken for the miss of the Evans family, if she did not stand up to help Crystal, she would be poked in the back and scolded to death.

Madam Marcy didn’t know what to do. Ariel said, “Mom, I will never apologize to that b*tch!”

Crystal frowned and said, “Then we’ll call the police! Let the police thoroughly investigate your fake testimony back then.”

“You-” Ariel was filled with anger. She took two steps forward and was about to slap Crystal in the face. Antony grabbed her wrist and gave her a hard push. Ariel fell to the ground. Before she could cry, she looked into Antony’s cold eyes. “If you dare to touch my sister, I’ll chop you into pieces and feed you to the dog. Do you believe it?”
