

Widow 439

Chapter 439

“Anaya!”

“Anaya!”

Crystal and Alan saw Anaya spit out blood. They were so shocked that they hurried forward to hold her.

Anaya’s face was originally pale, but after it was stained with blood, it showed a kind of beauty

She was breathing heavily. Looking at the blood on her hand, she reluctantly said, “I’m fine, I want to pursue this matter anymore. I... She bit her lip, frowned, and said, “I’ll go first.” She pushed Alan away hard and staggered out, as if there were a fierce beast chasing her and she could only try her best to escape.

Crystal’s finger was also stained with Anaya’s blood. She was stunned for a moment, but Alan had already caught up with Anaya. Crystal hesitated for a moment, but she did not go after them. Instead, she turned to look at Ariel and said, “Since Anaya doesn’t want to pursue the matter, then I will call the police directly.”

Ariel was stunned. “Anaya has forgiven me. What right do you have to call the police?”

“Has Anaya forgiven you? She’s just too lazy to argue with you, but I’m a small-minded person and
