

Widow 440

Chapter 440

Harold tutted and said to Luke, "Take them away first. They're too noisy."

Luke nodded and was about to give instructions when Erik quickly said, "There's no need to trouble Master White's men..."

With a wave of his hand, all of the Shamus Family's servants rushed out. Erik said, "Madam Marcy, Miss Ariel, please go to the lounge first and wait for the police to come."

"And..." He glanced at Jared, who was sitting on the ground with his head down and no one knew what he was thinking, and said, "Take this person away too."

The servant nodded in agreement. Madam Marcy and Ariel were making a scene, but they were quickly dragged away. Jared didn't make a fuss. He just suddenly looked at Crystal and asked, "Do you think that I am very ridiculous?"

Crystal paused.

The servants stopped sensibly, waiting for Crystal to finish speaking with Jared.

"I don't think you're ridiculous." Crystal said, "I only feel that you're disgusting."

When Harold, who had been in a daze, heard these words, he was slightly stunned.

I love her so much, but squatted down in front of him and said, "Jared, you don't love her. You just fall in love

Jared was stunned.

the same dormitory. Alan got into the school with a high rank, but he had poor results. Everyone praised Alan, which made him very he saw Anaya. He had dated so many girlfriends before, both sincere and insincere, but so strange? He fell in love with her with just one to confess his love to Anaya, he heard the

and they loved each night, when he stood at Alan's bed, holding a fruit knife in his hand, and wanted to stab

to see that time, his illness was very serious. The doctor suggested that he drop out of school for treatment, but he was dropped out of school because of mental illness, what would Anaya think of him,

Jared held on was getting worse and worse, and sometimes he would even hurt himself. That made him feel worse than death. He gathered all his courage to that time, he