

Widow 441

Chapter 441

In fact, he was already dead. How could he know how close Alan and Anaya were to each other? How good it would be if he died. Perhaps when Anaya mentioned him, she would even say that he was pitiful. But now, he had become her enemy. Maybe he would not be able to get a smile from her when they met again in the underworld.

Jared closed his eyes and got up from the ground.

Crystal suddenly felt that he was actually very pitiful.

He did everything he could to get a love that didn't belong to him. In the end, he was riddled with holes and wounds.

But his miserableness was not worthy of sympathy.

Jared stumbled and was carried away by someone. At this time, his lame feet looked very funny. Some people sneered, and some hated him, but he looked at the gentle sky outside the hall and smiled.

A person like him shouldn't be loved and couldn't be loved.

quieted down. Edna coughed and said, "Since the Shamus Family's said, "You framed others and to the means of these two people, they would not let Crystal live a good life. However, all these resentments fell on her. Aletta slowly took a step back and was no longer willing deserve to be an ambassador of the company. You're even humiliated overseas. Your business with Christy. After all, no one knew when Christy would plot against them.

teeth and said, "Mrs.

said coldly, "If I leave you here, it will dirty out! Take back all the Shamus Family servant quickly dragged Christy out of words, they also said, "Yes, I also have an order with her... When is good at embroidery, I won't dare to use it. I have ordered five or six have to withdraw the