

Widow 443

Chapter 443

Hearing this, Antony was very upset. He wanted to say something but was pulled back by Mason. He put his arms around Antony's shoulders and said, "I'm hungry. Let's go and have dinner." Antony was a little annoyed. "All you know is how to eat. Didn't you see that Rose is unhappy..." "Didn't you see that your younger sister is about to cry?!" Freud was even angrier. He pushed Crystal forward and said, "You're always siding Dora. She's crying because she's upset!"

The crystal lamp was too dazzling and Crystal, whose eyes were filled with tears, was rubbing them. She was confused.

Antony looked at the tears in Rose's eyes and said, "I don't mean to side with Rose."

Crystal didn't care about that at all and replied with an "oh".

Antony felt that Crystal was unusually cold. She must be angry. He opened his mouth and said, "I really..."

At this time, Crystal's cell phone rang, and a beautiful song rang in the luxurious banquet hall. What Antony wanted to say was stuck in her throat.

other side of the phone, the man's voice

"Right away," Crystal said.

said, "I still have something to do, so said, "We're going to have hot pot. Don't you as she ran outside. "Thank and said, "Look at what you've done. Your sister, who has such a Antony was speechless.

it all his sincerely, "Antony, although Dora grew up with you, it was Crystal who is related to you biologically. Just now, Miss Harmon's words were so harsh. You only thought that Dora would be sad, but you've never thought that Crystal would be so sad. Don't be so obvious, even if you're being and said, "When did I say that I don't care about Crystal?

now." Freud said, "Are you talking human language? What do you mean by harsh, but he had always been like this. He would not hide the words