Widow 450

Chapter 450

The doctor patted him on the shoulder and sighed. "You are all so young and impulsive. It took your parents a lot of effort to raise you. It's very easy for you to die. How can you face the people who. care about you?"

Alan moved his lips and wanted to say that Anaya had no parents. She was abandoned as soon as she was born. She had been through a lot when she grew up, but she grew up very well. She lived with confidence and freedom. It was he who ruined her whole life.

The six years of despair were too bitter.

But in the end, Alan didn't say anything. He just bowed to the doctor and said, "Thank you."

"It's my responsibility." The doctor said, "She has been transferred to the intensive care unit. You can't visit her now, but you can look at her through the glass window. I have something to do, so I have to go first."

Alan nodded, and the doctor left in a hurry.

They followed the nurse to the intensive care unit. Through the glass window, they could see Anaya's pale face as she lay on the bed. There were many instruments on her body and she was wearing an oxygen mask.
