

Widow 459

Chapter 459

Because Sadie had not woken up for a long time, she was not good at controlling her limbs. She had used up a lot of energy to take a shower. She had stayed in the bathroom for two hours, and now she had no strength left to stand on her legs. However, Danny was still here, so she did not dare to sit down. She could only stand there.

For some reason, she was a little afraid of Danny.

Danny did not look at Sadie. He was thinking about how to deal with her.

The Hays family members had been separated for a few years, and Sadie's parents had disappeared. She had no home to go back to. It seemed that he was the only person in the world who could take care of her.

While he was thinking, he suddenly heard a "bang". When he turned his head, he saw Sadie fall to the ground.

It should be painful, but she bit her lip and didn't make a sound. Seeing him looking over, she said in a panic, "I, I'm sorry... I don't have the strength..."

Danny walked up to her and said, "You didn't do anything wrong. There's no need to apologize." He frowned and picked her up from the ground. Sadie was shocked. "No, I can get up by myself..."

Danny was a little surprised.
