

Widow 461

Chapter 461

The first one was that Danny loved her too much, so he couldn't bear to make her sad.

The second possibility was that Danny didn't care about her, so he didn't care who she liked at all. From Danny's attitude toward her, it was definitely the second one.

Sadie was in a daze again. Suddenly, the doorbell rang. She quickly went to open the door as she held onto the furniture. There were a few people she didn't know. When they saw her, they all bowed and said, "Hello, madam!"

"?" Sadie was at a loss. "Did you mistake me for someone else?"

They looked at each other and said, "Isn't this... President Evans's home? Are you Miss Sadie?"

Sadie nodded.

"That's right." The leader said, "Nigel asked us to bring some daily necessities here. You should check and see if there is anything missing."

As they spoke, they placed a few boxes in the entrance.

said, "Thank you all, there isn't anything few of them muttered in their hearts. They had thought that President Evans's wife would be arrogant.

said, "If you have need." Sadie said, "There are already a lot noise inside and came out. They quickly looked at the boxes and said, "Help even stand, let alone tidy up these things. It was not convenient for him to help Sadie do these answered, took out the slippers neatly, put them were done in less than 15 minutes. Sadie was a little embarrassed. She took them into the elevator and then slowly walked to the living room as furniture.

received the news and I'm going to have a meeting. If you're hungry, call Nigel and ask him to order takeout for the drawer and said, "Use this first. The password on the lock screen is six zeros, and the payment password phone and opened her

need to saying that, Danny walked out. Sadie pursed her lips and felt that it was a little unreal. She turned on the mobile phone. As soon as she entered the password of the lock screen, she suddenly heard footsteps